

GO FIGR

WE'RE HIRING!

Come start a budding career with FIGR!

Reporting directly to the Head Growers, the Irrigation Technician will be responsible for ensuring that all irrigation requirements are followed accordingly while also maintaining proper inventory records, measurements, and sanitation of our irrigation system and nutrients.

IRRIGATION TECHNICIAN

- Responsible for the accurate mixing and delivery of nutrients to the plants
- Monitors and assures the plant production schedules is current for proper recipe delivery
- Maintain inventory of all chemicals and fertilizers on site and order as necessary
- Ensures the Argus system and all fertigation system equipment is running properly, and all irrigation events are being delivered without omission of error
- Respond to fertigation alarms and troubleshoot issues promptly
- Monitor and report crop stress or injury to Head Growers
- Take measurements, record data and observations
- Maintain grow room sanitation protocols
- Performs regular calibration of nutrient testing instruments
- Monitor soil moisture content of the crop, and obtain water samples for testing
- Required to closely monitor EC/PH of nutrient solution to ensure optimal growth and development
- Participate in continuous improvements initiatives
- Responsible for maintaining MSDS and ensuring they are always up to date
- Other duties as assigned

GO FIGR

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Experience and knowledge of irrigation/environmental systems is considered a strong asset
- Ability to work independently with appropriate directions
- Ability to work well in a team-oriented environment
- Meticulous attention to detail
- Maintain healthy, motivated, safe work environments
- Maintains a high level of accountability and responsibility
- Able to work variable shifts to meet business requirements
- Successful candidate will be subject to a Criminal Records Check
- All employees must be 19+

PERKS!

- Competitive Wages!
- Medical / Dental Benefits!
- Corporate Gym Memberships!
- Professional Development Opportunities!
- Exciting New Industry!

EMAIL: jobs@figr.com